SECTION B: 50 MARKS

Questions 51 to 55 carry ten marks each.

Read the passage below and then answer, in full sentences, the questions that follow.
The night was very silent that time. We could only hear the buzzing of mosquitoes, croaking of frogs and hooting of owls from a distance. Soon, we heard our father singing in a staggering voice outside, "Bakuzala Mubala!" which was his favourite song that meant born in the bar.

Suddenly, we heard a loud bang. Father had kicked the door and it was broken into uncountable pieces. Mother towards the door, her heart throbbing with mighty beats. "You stupid woman! How long do you take to open the door?" Father asked angrily. "Is this the kind of life you expect me to lead after making me discontinue with my education?" Mother asked as tears rolled down her cheeks.
"Nonsense! You are good nothing. There is nothing you are telling me. Just bring food!" he roared back.

Mother obeyed and without delay, brought food and placed it on the table. It was the usual posho and unfried beans. "Is this what you give me? Am I a beggar to eat such food? Give me food!" he shouted. We all got more frightened. Mother told him there was no other food except the one she had provided. When he threatened to beat her, she ran and locked herself in our bedroom. His attempts to break into our bedroom failed because the door was metallic. Because he was very drunk, he soon fell asleep in the sofa in the sitting room. Suddenly there was total silence because the 'lion' had slept.

In our room, we didn't sleep immediately. We thought he could wake up and continue quarrelling. This was when Mother began talking to us. She told us, "My children, you can see what illiteracy has caused to your father. I advise you to remain focused on your education, despite the hardships that we are facing here at home." She said she would struggle to raise money from her farming activities to buy uniforms and scholastic materials so that we could continue with our studies. She advised my brother and me to remain humble. "Do not engage in violence. It causes destruction of relationship, peace and property. Even at school, never fight with your friends for anything. Report those who torment you to your teachers," she said. After that, she told us to kneel down. She led a short prayer and we slept.
